BUSINESS CARDS

Physician

Surgeon

E. T. Anderson, M. D.

Enterprise,

Oregon.

Physician and Surgeon

C. T. HOCKETT, M. D. Independent Phone,

Office up stairs in Bank Bldg.

When Passing On The Lewiston Road, Stop At The Sled Springs Hotel.

Plenty of Stalle Roon ..

S. B. CONNER, Proprietor.

Wm. McIlroy AND. Company. Farms, Timber Lands, Acresge, Lots, Residence and Business Property For Sale. Timber Lacating a Specialty ELGIN, - OREGON.

Stone Mason and Gutter

Cut stone flues constantly on hand for short order work, also fresh lime,

L. J. PISELL, WALLOWA, OR.

WALLOWA NATIONAL BANK

G. W. Hyatt, Pres. W. R. Holmes, Cashler. Frank A. nenvis.

Capital, $50 000. $30,000. Surplus,

Directors. Geo, W. Hyatt, Mattie A. Holmes Geo. S. Craig,

G. Pennell, W. R. Holmes. We do a general banking business. Exchange bought and sold on principal cities. ENTERPRICE, CRESCH

J. A. Burleigh

Daniel Boyd

Burleigh & Boyd

Attorneys-at-Law

Will practice in all the Courts of this State and before the Interior and its offices.

The most careful attention given to all business entrusted to our care.

Enterprise, Oregon.

Ruggles & Lathrope.

The House MOVERS

We will move your house, barn or wanted.

If you are in need of any work in our line, call on or address us at

ENTERPRISE,

OREGON

Leather Goods

My Stock is the largest in this section of the state, and "most important of all is the personal element entering into the make-up of my goods. It is something to me that the product of my shop shall be right," Call in and let me show you around.

L. Berland

Enterprise

Oregon

The News-Record

H. A. GALLOWAY, Editor and Publisher.

Issued Every Saturday

Entered at the Enterprise post office as Second Class Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. (In Advance.) One Year....

Three Months.

City and County Brief News Items

Twill soon be school time. forget that Burnaugh & Mayfield are headquarters for school supplies. Best line of tablets in town.

Dermine Cream, the best preparation for chapped hands and face, is sold by Bunningh & Mayfield, Therefore the counts seat should stay in Enterprise

A. L. Curray, an attorney of Baker City, in company with the traffic agent of the N, P., was in the city this week looking at the county.

Don't forget that the News-Record is fully equipped, and always ready to look after your job printing. No matter how large a job it is, or how difficult, let us figure with you.

Miss Barnes, representing the Reliable Fur company, was taking orders at the E. M. & M. Co's store Wednesday,

Arthur Johnson of Imnaha was in town the first of the week with a load of grapes, tomatoes, etc. Grapes are retailing at one dollar per box of about pounds and tomatoes at 75 cents per

The proposed new charter for La Grande was defeated at the city election last Monday by a majority of 17. A very small vote was cast.

O. G. Crawford, who is representing the Success magazine, left the city Wednesday after a stay of about a month or six weeks. He goes from here to Cove, Union county, where he has a sister and where he will ply his vocation for some time.

Herbert Browning returned Monday from Willamette University, where he had been with his sister Edna, who will Boyd. attend that institution this year. Miss Browning will study music and paint-

A single fir tree cut near Raymond, Wash., a few days ago, yielded three logs which scaled nearly '45,000 feet, the market value of the lumber therefrom being $425. At this rate some of the quarter sections of timber land which have been selling as high as $50 exorbitant prices,-Oregonian.

this city, where they will be sold.

There will be preaching services at the Presbyterian church on Sunday, of those two towns. Oct. 13, at 11 a. m. by Rev. N. E. Hammack. The subject will be from Gal. 3, "We Are All One In Christ." can attend to do so.

Rev. W. P. Samms will occupy the which has not yet received a regular the printing office is located.

30 p. m. Subject for evening services, pastor.

W. Rankin started to Imnaha last Wednesday after a load of fruit.

B. F. Miller will preach at Lostine next Sunday. He will supply at Lostine and Wallowa until a regularly appointed minister can be located.

Presiding Elder J. D. Gillian will be in Enterprise next Wednesday, Oct. 2, to hold the first quarterly conference of the year. He will also preach in the M. E. church in the evening. Your presence is expected.

Lyda Flowers, Alvina Hess and John Patterson intend starting for Spokane today on a visit of indefinite length. They will later be joined by Everett Flowers.

Jake Wagner, who has been suffering for some time past with a severe attack of rheumatism, is able to move around with the aid of a crutch.

Ashley still has a few of those Drop Daniel Boyd and family and his sten-Head Singer Sewing Machines which ographer, Miss Ella Daley, went to Falls From Top Ashley still has a few of those Drop he is closing out at $40 each, while Smith Mountain Thursday morning. they last.

fork, was in Enterprise this week,

Miss Beulah M. Frost of South Dakota successfully passed an examination by County Superintendent J. W. Kerns and she has been granted a temporary cartificate to teach.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall of Richhill, Mo., are visiting J. A. Eggleson friends in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Hall are on their way home from a trip to the Coast. They are very fertile Wallowa Valley.

The Christian church is being repainted and repapered this week.

A new flue will be built. Thomas Rich of Fruita was in Enterprise the fore part of the week,

Sunday school rally at the Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All Enterprise and Alder Slope schools will participate.

Miss Alta Haggerty left Monday morning for Union where she will spend part of her vacation on a visit.

Alfred Gardner, who spent a summer vacation here with friends and relatives, left Monday morning for his home at Walla Walla, Wash., where he is employed as telegraph editor on the Morning Union. Carl Roe, formerly of Enterprise, is managing editor of the Claude Lockwood is taking a brief vacation from his duties in the Wallowa National bank. He went to Pendleton Monday for a week's stay.

C. M. Smith and family of Lostine have gone to the Willamette valley. They will locate there or in California, Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Templeton left Monday for Portland to be absent several will attend the sessions of the Presbyterian synod.

Rev. F. W. Batchelder's father came in from Spokane to meet his son. The elder gentleman liked the valley so well during his short visit that he contemplates returning to locate here.

Miss Mary Walker left on Monday morning's stage for her home at Post Falls, Id. She spent the spring and summer here with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel

C. C. Turley, after a few weeks rest and visit among friends in Enterprise, returned Monday to Vancouver, Wash., where he is manager of the electric light plant. Mr. Turley installed the electric plant in this city and managed it for several years. This was his first visit here in four years and he was surprised at the rapid growth of the town. The plant here has been enlarged per acre do not appear to have brought several times and now requires 275 horsepower to manufacture the "juice" Frank Reel, the Joseph drayman, for this city. The plant at Wallowa made several trips to Enterprise during has also been renewed and the present harness shop supplies from Joseph to for 200 horse power. These changes, price. Mr. Turley says, show conclusively the cd. substantial as well as the rapid growth

The family of the editor of the News-Record arrived in Enterprise Wednesday and for the present are staying at Rev. Hammack is one of the old land the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moss of West marks in the church workers of this Main street. The family includes Mrs. county and he hopes to have all who Galloway and two children, Margaret and Robert, and Mrs. Galloway's sisters, the Misses Snow and Nanne pulpit in the M. E. church next Sunday | Heaton, When their household goods morning. The Enterprise church is arrive, they will occupy the living one of the few "to be supplied" but rooms in the Hyatt building in which

The concert by the Fourteenth U. S. Services at the Christian church Cavalry band in the opera house Saturother buildings in a careful manner; Sunday, Sept. 29. Sunday school at 10 day night greatly pleased a splendid a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. Christian audience of over 400 hundred people, Endeavor at 6:30 p. m; preaching at 7: The band fulfilled every expectation and gave indeed a rare musical treat. "How to Study the Bible." Come and Bandmaster Osterman and Business let us reason together, I am sure you Manager Sergeant Stewart praised the will be helped. M. J. Thompson, audience highly, saying it was one of they had seen. The band was generous and added many extra numbers to the program in response to hearty encores. The receipts were over $160. The band gave a concert at Wallowa Monday

Charles Wiley, 10-year old son of E. L. Wiley of near Wallowa, was thrown from a horse about 11 o'clock Tuesday, his skull being crushed so that he died about four hours later without having regained consciousness. He was on horse back chasing a coyote and in turning it is supposed he drew the rein too tight and the horse fell, catching the lad's head under it, and crushing his skull. The boy's father was at Joseph but reached his son's side a short time before he died. Father, two brothers, two sisters and a host of friends mu orn Charlie's untimely death.

Daniel Boyd and family and his sten-

The trustees of the M. E. church Frank Phy, ex-sheriff of Union received a telegram Thursday morning county, who is mining up the south stating that their new pastor, Rev. Fred G. Potter of Hellenberg, Kan., will arrive in a few days. He is to take the place of Rev. Paul Gardner, who had been assigned to this charge but could not come.

"To Joseph in four months" O. R. & N, construction officials continue to say in interviews published in Baker City and family, County Assessor Pace and and La Grande papers relative to the family and other relatives and old completion of the extension from Elgin. No one here will kick if trains are running even by April 1.

Contractor Hayworth came in from much pleased with the beautiful and La Grande Wednesday. He says the fire at Wallowa will delay the comple tion of the Fraternal building but very little. Local mills will duplicate the burned material.

> The 14th Cavalry bought considerable grain and hay from farmers and dealers. For example the purchasing officer bought 15,000 pounds of oats in Enter prise, paying 11/4 cents a pound. The sale was made through Sol Keltner of the firm of Hartshorn & Keltner.

J. S. Applegate, prominent farmer and citizen of Appleton, was transacting and threshing pretty well along. Wheat turned him over to the army officers. is yielding from 25 to 40 bushels to the acre and other grains in proportion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cook and two children and B. B. Boyd went to Elgin Monday by private conveyance. Mrs. Cook and the children are going to Salem for a visit while Messrs. Cook and Boyd go to Twin Falls, Id., where they may invest in land if the same suits them. Considerable land will be open for settlement there in a few days. Mr. Cook will join his family in their visit at Salem before returning home.

O. J. Roe, of Eureka, S. Dak., who made a host of friends here during his five weeks' stay, started for home Monday morning. He goes by the way of Portland, thence by the S. P. railway to southern California. After a short visit there he goes directly home by the way of Salt Lake and Omaha. He expects to return to this valley as soon as the railroad is completed to Wallowa, and will bring his wife and eight-year-old daughter Ramons. He has bought the Akins place on Alder Slope and will there make his home. Mr. Roe is a business man of varied experience, ranging from farming to publishing English and German newspapers from the same office. He is wonderfully enthusiastic about Wallowa county and believes it to be only at the beginning of a great development. Mr. Roe is of the class of citizens that will hasten that development. He and his family are sure of a hearty welcome here.

$1250.00 buys a commodious 8room house with a whole block of ground in the most desirable order of the Hon. O M. Corkins, County residence district in Enterprise. Judge of Wallowa county, Oregon, made and made several trips to Enterprise during has also been renewed and the present the week, while transferring the Green installation when completed will call the week, while transferring the Green installation when completed will call price. Come in quick if interest-directing the publication was also been renewed and the present trips to Enterprise during the same and the present trips to Enterprise during the same and the present trips to Enterprise during the same and the present trips to Enterprise during the Green installation when completed will call price. O. R. & I. CO.

Notice to Rebekahs.

All officers and members of Emerald Rebekah lodge, No. 119, are earnestly requested to be present at a social evening to be given Wednesday night, October 2. Eva Willgerodt, Secy.

Sells Threshing Outfit.

Hartshorn & Eisenbeis have sold their threshing outfit to Sam Litch, C. H. Ogbourn and H. C. Laird, Alder Slope farmers. Hartshorn & Eisenbeis was a popular firm and did a large business with the outfit.

Justice Court Suit.

The case of Wm. Rolles against Schuyler Hodgin of Enterprise was tried before a jury in Judge Smith's court Tuesday. The suit was on a note given for an insurance premium. The defense claimed failure of consideration in that no policy was delivered. The the most attentive and discriminating jury found in favor of the defendant who was represented by Burleigh &

Market Report.

The Enterprise mill is paying 60 cents a bushel for wheat, and 90 cents per cwt. for rye, The last quotation on oats was 90c and barley 75c per cwt., but the market is unsettled and the next quotation is likely to be a little better. Grain is of fairly good quality though there is some frosted wheat.

Flour sells at $1.25 a sack, shorts $20 and bran $15 a ton.

Merchants are paying from 34 to le for potatoes. Cabbage 2 @ 236 c, tomatoes 75c a box. Apple market is brisk and price varies with variety, peaches 75c a box, pears 75c, silver pranes 65c.

Ranch butter 25c, creamery 70c per 2 lb. roll, eggs 25c.

Telephone Pole

Roger Kay had a narrow escape for his life Wednesday. He was at Lostine rewiring the town and otherwise overhauling the electric plant. He was working at the top of a pole, to which he was strapped. The pole which was old and rotten, broke off at the butt and Roger fell with the pole to the ground. He struck on his right hip which sustained a bad bruise. In some way his left shoulder was also hurt. If the pole had fallen on him he probably would have been killed.

Roger was brought to his father's home here in Enterprise in a buggy Wednesday night and was confined to his bed for a day by his injuries, but is now able to walk down town.

Desertion Alleged.

On information furnished by officers of the U. S. cavalry detachment in this county last week, Sheriff Blakely arrested Wm. Paquet at Joseph Wednesday on the charge of desertion. It is claimed he deserted at Spokane last November, but Paquet says it business in Enterprise Wednesday. He is a case of mistaken identity. Sherifi reported excellent crops in that section Blakely took him to Elgin Thursday and Cattle Rustlers Nabbed.

Earl Steen and James Miller were arrested by Sheriff Blakely in the mountains 18 miles beyond S. T. Tippett's ranch on the Chesnimous and brought to Enterprise, Monday, on the charge of cattle stealing in Idaho. They were turned over to Deputy Sheriff Wortman of Lewiston who had a warrant for them. It is said many head of cattle have been stolen in Nez Perce county and brought to this county and sold. These men have been suspected for some time but this was the first time they were caught with the goods. In a bunch they sold to Masterson & Wiley are cattle claimed by Idaho parties. Mr. Wortman left Tuesday for Lewiston with his prisoners.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Wallowa County. W. K. Stubblefield, Plaintiff, Angie Stubblefield, Defendant, To Angle Stubblefield, the above named defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon:-You are hereby required to appear and answer to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publica-tion of this Summons, which first date of publication is Saturday, September 21st, 1907, and if you fall to appear and answer within said time, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, viz:-

For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant, upon the grounds of willful desertion.

This Summons is published pursuant to an directing the publication thereof for the period of six consecutive weeks commencing with the date of September 21st, 1907. BURLEIGH & BOYD, _21t7

Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Wallowa County.

Mary A. Danforth' and Lucius Danforth, her husband, and Larkin Hunley, Defendants.

To Mary A. Danforth, Lucius Danforth and Larkin Hunley, the defendants above in the name of the State Oregon:-You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer to complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this Summons, which date of first publication is Saturday, September 21st, 1907, and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to wit:-

For a decree requiring you and each of you to set forth the nature of your claim or interest in and to Lot numbered Eight and the South one-half of Lot numbered Nine in Block numbered Eleven in the town of Joseph, Wallowa county, Oregon, and that all adverse claims of you and each of you be determined by said decree; that you and such of you be adjudged and decreed to have no interest or claim in and to said real prop erty or any part thereof; that plaintiff's title thereto be adjudged and decreed to be good and valid against you and each of you, and his title thereto quieted: and that you and each of you be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any claim or interest in and to said real property or any part thereof, ad-verse to the title of plaintiff; and for such other and further relies as to equity shall sesm meet and agreeable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the News-Record, for the full period of six consecutive weeks, commencing with the date of September 21st, 1907, pursu-ant to an order of the Hon. O. M. Corkins, County Judge of Wallowa county, Orego which order is made and dated on the 18th day of September, 1907.

BURLEIGH & BOYD, 3117 Attorneys for Plaintiff.